Thought for the Week

It's an interesting collection of readings this week that could lead us in a number of different directions. The wisdom and power of God's laws, commandments and teachings or the freedom that Christ offers would be two options. But a third, and I find more compelling, option would be to explore the authority and power of Jesus, especially in the light of Paul's comments on how we deal with what he calls "weaker" brothers and sisters. There is no question that the power and glory of God that is revealed in Christ is a very different thing from the way we usually understand those terms in our world today. May our worship this week give us a new vision of the power and glory of our God.

Synod School of Theology

Barbara and Tania travel to Synod in Christchurch on Friday and will attend the School of Theology, returning on Wednesday.

Next Sunday 4th February

There will be no lunch provided after our service.

Instead you are invited to join in our church picnic at the home of Craig and Anna King. Please contact the office if you require the address and directions.

Time: From 12 midday and we will eat around 12.30/1pm

Bring: a deckchair, your own plates/cutlery and food/drink for a shared lunch. Tea/coffee will be provided. We will have the BBQ going so food can be cooked.

If anyone has a spare sun umbrella and stand please bring it too, just in case it is a scorcher of a day and we need lots of cover. Bring your togs if you would like to have a spa!

Touchstone You are invited to fill in the questionnaire about Touchstone emailed to the whole congregation earlier this week.

Kids Klub begins with a Fun Sunday on 11th February.

Lindisfarne Friendship Group meets Thursday 1st February at Peacehaven Cafe at 2pm for afternoon tea and friendship. 'Share how you spent Christmas'. Anyone welcome.

LEGS (Ladies Evening Group) Coffee and Dessert evening at 7.00pm on Tuesday 13th February at Main Street Café in Kelvin Street. Numbers are needed by Wednesday 7th February. Please contact either Carolyn Weston or Carolyn McDonald.
