Thought for the Week

We often talk about God's Reign in human terms – what it means for us, how it affects us. This first Sunday in Lent, though, at the start of our penitent journey of preparation for Holy Week and Easter, we are invited to expand our vision of God's Reign and recognise that it embraces all of creation, and that it whispers of a connectedness between all things that, once we embrace it, is truly world-changing.

May our worship and our penitence open our eyes to the connectedness of all creation.

During Holy Week we will walk “the way of sorrows” through the eyes and experiences of one of Jesus’ closest disciples, Peter. As a nod to the Stations of the Cross, this time highlights Peter’s role in the crucifixion narrative. We follow Jesus to his death with Peter as our companion. By focusing on Peter, we imagine how we might have acted and behaved, had we been there as one of Jesus’ followers and friends.

This will be a self-guided time and you can stay as long as you need.
