Thought for the Week

The idea of losing life in order to save it may sound like a contradiction, but once we allow this week's Lectionary to move us into Jesus' view of things, it makes perfect sense. The struggle, though, is less about understanding what Jesus meant, and more about how we actually find the courage and faith to live his call.

May our worship lead us into losing our lives for the sake of the Gospel so we may truly find them.

Holy Week Services

At Lindisfarne - Monday 25th to Thursday 28th March at 7.00pm, Good Friday at 9.30am. Also at various city churches 12.15pm each day Monday to Thursday. And Monday to Friday 9.30am – 12.30pm Self-guided time in our Sanctuary. Stay as long as you need. Check last week's hand out for details.

Goodbye, Anne

On Friday we farewelled Anne Stoddart – Lay Preacher, and much appreciated caring and faithful friend.

Thanks

Mags Kelly would like to express her gratitude to all who showed so much love and kindness to her over the past months while she was unwell.

Some Dates to Remember

Affordables afternoon tea at The Industry on Monday 18th March at 2.00pm. Please let Mags know if you are going.

Friday 22nd March from 2.00pm - Games afternoon in the Lounge. Bring your own games or use ours.

Sunday 24th March - Harvest Festival

You are invited to bring gifts from your garden or from the supermarket eg tins of soup, beans, spaghetti, fruit, fish, pasta and Weetbix, that we can use in our Brown Bags.

Money Matters

New offering envelopes can be collected from the foyer today. Start using them from the beginning of April.
