Thought for the Week

This week the challenge to live the resurrection continues. By combining the Good Shepherd metaphor with John's call for love and Peter's proclamation of God's grace in Christ, the Lectionary has some strong words for leaders, but also for all Christ-followers. God life is to be enjoyed as a priceless gift, but it is also to be received as a transforming influence, and shared as a grace-filled, love-bringing reality.

May the Good Shepherd fill us with life, and inspire us to be good shepherds to others as we worship this week.

We all have our time machines - those that take us back are memories, and those that carry us forward are dreams.

Tax Receipts

Please pick up your receipt for 2023-2024 donations today.

Roster

Thank you to everyone who has offered to help with responsibilities around the church. Help is still needed with

Morning tea – set up, serve and clean up.

Lunch – once a month. As for morning tea, but may include heating some food. All food provided by those attending.

Communion – prepare and serve Communion once a month.

Door - greet people as they arrive, hand out Bulletins, bring forward the offering. Other duties are Flowers, driving the van, helping with the creche or Kids Klub. Please tell Margaret if you can help.

All regular duties will just roll over for another eleven months.

Funeral refreshments We would welcome more people to help serve refreshments after funerals. All food is provided.

Soup

We are selling soup after today's service - vegetable, pumpkin, leek and potato, and chicken. $5 a pottle. IOUs accepted.

Cheese rolls

Order forms are ready in the foyer. – yellow for Thursday 23rd May, white for 24th May. If you are ordering for yourself alone, fill in the top form labelled Office. If you take forms to be filled in by family or friends, please write your name beside the appropriate number on the two-coloured sheet. We need help on Thursday 23rd from 9.30am and Friday 24th from 1.00pm. Orders can be collected on those days or put in the freezer.

We are not making cheese rolls on the Saturday.
