Thought for the Week

After last week's challenge to examine our allegiances and remain faithful to God's Reign, this week the Lectionary offers us a message of encouragement and comfort which will help us to do just that. The Scriptures this week remind us that small contributions are significant in God's economy, and that God works in mysterious hidden ways to bring forth fruit in our lives.

As we worship this week, may we know again the power of small things, and may we remember the hidden, but constant, impact of God's Kin-dom in our lives and our world.

Eddie Bremer Last Tuesday we farewelled Eddie, a calm and wise man. He was remembered as the "go to" member of our church – always there when the dishwasher wouldn't work or those chairs were put away wrongly again! Eddie was on our Property Committee and also chaired our Parish Meetings for many years. We remember his contribution to Bible Reading, Prayer Book, Friday Club, cheese rolls and selling the "men's stuff" at our garage sales. His was a long life – well spent.

Coffee Tania would be happy to have you join her for coffee at the Pantry at 2.00pm on Friday 21st June.

Affordables afternoon tea at the Rowena Jackson café on Monday 17th June at 2.00pm.

Please let Mags know if you are coming as she needs numbers.

Bible Reading and/or Prayer Book Roster If you would like your name to be added to one or both of these rosters, please tell Margaret.

Offering If you have been making a cash offering each Sunday, we suggest that you ask Margaret for a numbered envelope. You do not need to make a promised pledge, but you will get a receipt at the end of the financial year, which entitles you to a 33% tax rebate. This also applies for direct bank credit.

Maybe happiness is more readily available, if we don't spend too much time searching for it.
