Thought for the Week

How do we understand power? How do we use power effectively and creatively? In what ways does the view of power and authority that God's Kin-dom offers lead us into true allegiance to God and into lives in which our small contributions make a difference (as we've explored over the last two weeks)? These are some of the questions that the Lectionary raises this week, and, in our world of power struggles, they are important questions to answer.

May we learn to embrace the weak, serving and generous power of Christ through our liturgy this week.

Youth Transition House For the month of July please consider donating financially to the bedding packs for the Youth Transition House (see last week's insert). Please put your donation in a named envelope, labelled YTH, and Margaret will then give you a receipt.

From the Outreach Committee:

Brown Bags The little gold pig will be back this month. He is quite hungry for your small contributions for our Brown Bags.

Our Craft Circle would welcome your gifts of pure wool.

Fundraising Thank you to everyone who has helped us raise funds for our church. We have banked this much so far:

Cheese Rolls- about $2,400. There are about 20 trays left.

Soup – about $350. There are still some pottles for sale - $5.00. We will be making more soup on Thursday 25th July.

Games Afternoon 26th July Bring your own games or use ours.

Soaking the City in Prayer Our special week begins on Sunday 4th August. We will join in a congregational lunch after the service. Keep that date free! (No morning tea).

Quiz Night 17th August. Sharpen your wits now!

Garage Sale to be held on 19th October. We hope to sell produce well as the usual, so plant out some seedlings, make jam and pickles now.

I'd be unstoppable, if I could just get started.
