Thought for the Week

LEARN TO LISTEN TO GOD

People think they can't hear from God when, in reality, there are things they already know he wants them to respond to, and so far they haven't done it. Hearing from God is something you only develop with practice – especially if you are a talker! “Be still, and know that I am God”. Don't just talk to God when you need something; spend time listening. He will open up many issues if you will just be still before him. You say ‘I don't think I have ever heard God talk to me.’ Maybe that's because you haven't learnt to listen! When you ask God for something, tune your “receiver”. Even if he doesn't respond at that very moment, rest assured he will in due time. You may be doing some ordinary task, when he decides to speak to you.
