Thought for the Week

God is always working for restoration and justice in our lives and in our world. In order to open ourselves to this gracious work of God, we need to be aware of the messengers who proclaim God's coming, we need to be willing to do the tough work of heart preparation in order to be transformed by God, and we need to hear the call of God for us to become, in our turn, messengers – voices – of God's Reign.

May our worship this week remind us of God's constant, restorative coming, and may it give us a voice to proclaim the restoration and justice of God in our own corner of the world.

Prayer Hour – every Tuesday at 10.30am. Join us as we pray for our Church, church family and our community.

Reminder -Tania will be in her office from 9.30am to 12.30pm Tuesday to Friday.
Laura is in the church office from 9.30am to 12.30pm Monday to Friday.

Wednesday 11th December – 7.00pm. Join us in our community carol-singing. Bring your family, friends and neighbours to join in singing your favourite carols, listen to a few being sung to you, and learn about the background to some of our best-loved carols. Our choir will provide supper to finish.
If you are unable to attend in person, the singing will be available on Zoom. Please use the normal Sunday service zoom link. (but we would really prefer to have you with us!)

Christmas Services
Christmas Eve – 7.30pm
Christmas Day – 9.30am

Christmas Break -The office will close on Friday 20th December and re-open on Monday 27th January.
